

Carole Woodward President and CEO

Carole Woodward is President and CEO of the North Carolina Telecommunications Industry Association, Executive Vice President of Carolina-Virginias Telephone Membership Association and Executive Director of Eastern Rural Telecommunications Association.

Carole has over 25 years experience in association management. Prior to coming to NCTIA, she managed the Chambers of Commerce in Dunn, Reidsville and Lexington, NC.

A native North Carolinian, Carole completed studies at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Duke University and University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia.

Carole has three sons, a daughter-in-law and two grandsons.