

Embarq Names Director- Governmental Affairs in North Carolina, Manager - Governmental Affairs in North Carolina and Manager-External Affairs

Marty Bocock has been named director-governmental affairs for Embarq (formerly Sprint) in North Carolina. Bocock was named Virginia director-governmental and regulatory affairs in 1990. In 1993, he was appointed vice president and general manager for what was then Sprint/Centel-Virginia territory. He became director-governmental affairs in South Carolina in 1993, a position he held until his current appointment. Bocock is responsible for legislative and regulatory matters on behalf of Embarq in North Carolina. He has a bachelor's degree in business management from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

Other Embarq changes include:

Steven Brewer has been named manager-governmental affairs in North Carolina, supporting Bocock. Brewer, who has 14 years of experience with the company, most recently worked with Embarq's regulatory group. He is a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and earned an MBA at Campbell University.

Tracy Sternberg has been named manager-external affairs for Embarq Corporation. She will be supporting the external affairs, public affairs and governmental affairs efforts locally for North and South Carolina. Sternberg, who has 16 years of experience with the company, most recently worked with Embarq's consumer marketing group. She is a graduate of Meredith College.

August 22, 2006