Comporium VP Steve Moore Re-Elected to OPASTCO Board

For Immediate Release

ROCK HILL, S.C. - (Feb. 1, 2007) – Comporium’s Steve Moore was voted in for a second one-year term as the board member representing associate members in the Organization for the Promotion and Advancement of Small Telecommunications Companies (OPASTCO).

OPASTCO represents telecommunications companies and cooperatives, which range in size from 100 to 100,000 access lines, before federal regulatory bodies and provides educational programs and publications.

“OPASTCO sees 2007 as a crucial year in Washington,” said OPASTCO President John Rose, who welcomed all new board members, who would “...ensure that the association is able to continue its efforts on behalf of the membership. We appreciate their volunteerism on behalf of the small rural telecommunications industry and look forward to working with them.”

Moore is the vice president of industry sales for Comporium Business Solutions, which includes Security Dealer Program, Bill Services/OSS, Directory Publishing, Call Center and 411 Services, as well as Marketing and Advertising.

With more than 55 customers across the United States and in Ontario, Canada, Comporium Business Solutions provides support services to all sizes and types of telecommunications carriers and cable television operators. Please visit <http://www.comporiumsolutions.com/> for more information.
